2012 LITW: Linux in the Wild 2012

Date: July 15, 2012 at noon
Location: Strathcona Park Ottawa

The Annual Linux in the Wild picnic will be held at Strathcona Park.

Everyone is welcome. It's always a good time.

There will be pop for all. Please bring food to share, pot luck style.

The Rideau River is next to the park, so you probably need to closely watch your kids. Experience says that adults will be having serious discussions, and telling really bad computer jokes, even when the Board is not having an official meeting!
