Ed Hong is a consultant journeyman. His career followed the evolving technology landscape of Ottawa in the 1980s, and saw every new computer advancement as an adventure to explore. Career opportunities have allowed him to travel around the world for assignments, and he has also had a chance to work for a wide range of companies such Systemhouse, Nortel, Netscape, iPlanet, Sun Microsystems and Oracle in the United States.

In 2018, Ed returned to Ottawa and became a member of the Linux-Ottawa (aka: OCLUG), where he has reconnected with old friends, and made some new friends, in a city he is happy to call home again!
