January Meeting: Lightning Talks

Date: January 3, 2006 at 7 p.m.
Location: University of Ottawa, Tabaret Hall Senate Room (083)

p>Since nobody should have to write a full presentation over Christmas, we are continuing our tradition of having a series of lightning talks in January. These are short introductions or overviews of a topic, typically 5 minutes in length but we'll probably have time for slightly longer talks this month.

Think of some interesting Linux-related thing you've done over the past year, and give be prepared to speak! If possible, please email me in advance with your topic and approximate time so we can schedule things properly.
