SED part 2 and Music production distros

September Meeting: SED part 2 and Music production distros

Date: September 3, 2009 at 7 p.m.
Location: Algonquin College (Woodroffe Campus), room T117

NOTE: MEETING MOVED FROM TUESDAY TO THURSDAY

Since Algonquin has been quite busy with daytime and evening classes, we've been forced to move from Tuesday to Thursday evening until at least December if we wish to continue holding our meetings there.

Although the rooms are a suitably sized and priced for our needs, send mail to the oclug mailing list if you have any comments on the date change or suggestions for an alternate location.

SED stream editor - part 2

Speaker: Steve Lusk

The speaker will continue with more details and examples for the SED steam editor given at the August meeting.

60 minutes

Music Production Distros

Speaker: Mike Keller

The speaker has been using the “64 Studio” Linux distro for music production.

This distro and other aspects of Music Production in Linux will be discussed.
