Letters of invitation

Letter inviting an IETF draft author

Hi .....,

I am one of the organizers of the Ottawa IPv6 Summit, scheduled tentatively for March 2011. The summit will serve as an introduction to IPv6 specific issues for people that setup, debug, and manage network infrastructure. We are planning a full day event with an intro/business-case stream, a technical stream, and a “demo” room where people can test their portable equipment's IPv6 compatibility.

I have noticed that you were involved in drafting IPv6 related IETF proposals. I am writing to ask if you would be interested in speaking at our event.

I would also appreciate your suggestions about other IPv6 evangelists who could speak at, or contribute to, this event.

Best regards,

Letter inviting a training institution

Hi .....,

I am one of the organizers of the Ottawa IPv6 Summit, scheduled tentatively for March 2011. The summit will serve as an introduction to IPv6 specific issues for people that setup, debug, and manage network infrastructure. We are planning a full day event with an intro/business-case stream, a technical stream, and a “demo” room where people can test their portable equipment's IPv6 compatibility.

We were wondering if your organization would like to give a technical mini-seminar on IPv6 that could act as an introduction and promotion of your other course offerings.

We are looking for other technical speakers, and those that can talk of their IPv6 success stories. Feel free to share this invitation with other IPv6 evangelists.

Best regards,
